

Abstract

A distinct cultivar of Marguerite Daisy plant named 'Argydowitis' characterized by its upright vigorous plant habit, good field performance, large semi-double white flowers, dark green

5 colored leaves, freely flowering with numerous inflorescences per plant.